ACHS Drama Club Off To Good Start

The Appomattox County High School Drama Club opened a new season of plays, skits, and other exciting school activities Wednesday, September 5, 1979.

John Caldwell, President; Andrew Fratrick, Vice President; Susan Shorter, Secretary; Tommy Williams, Treasurer; Stephanie Ferguson, Reporter; Linda St. John, Historian; and Mrs. Joyce Sweet and Miss Debbie Rush, sponsors, were excited about the upcoming year.

Last year was excellent for the club. The Miracle Worker was well received by the community and school. The group won 1st place awards from the One Act Play Festival with I Bring You Flowers, and the radio play, "The Attic Room."

This year we plan to have for the opening production, "Flowers for Algeron", written by David Rogers. We also look forward to hosting the Regional Theatre Festival in the Spring. Other plays and school activities will occur throughout the year.

Thirty-six possible members were present Wednesday night, 17 of which have attended and worked with the Drama Club for one or more years. We look forward to having a great year and invite your support throughout the 1979-80 school year.

Bill Rodgers To Speak at R-MWC

Bill Rodgers, renowned marathon runner, will address the public and college community on Thursday, September 20 at 8 p.m. on the Randolph-Macon Woman's College campus, in Smith Memorial Auditorium.

Rodger's appearance on campus is one of the many R-MWC events open to the public this school year, which have been scheduled by the College Public Presentations Committee.

Rodgers is a businessman and runner from Melrose, Mass., whose favorite running event is the marathon. He has won the Virginia Ten Miler four times and will be running in that event this year on September 22.

Rodgers is a winner of both the prestigious Boston marathon and New York City marathon. Named 1977 Road-runner by the Roadrunners Club of America, Rodgers represented the U.S. in the 1976 Olympics Marathon.

On September 20 at R-MWC, Rodgers, who runs between 130 and 170 miles a week, will be addressing the college community and public on the art of running. Admission fee is $2.50.

H-Sydney President Keynote Speaker For Westminister-Canterbury Ceremony

Josiah Bunting, III, president of Hampden-Sydney College, will be keynote speaker for the cornerstone laying ceremony to be held by Westminster-Canterbury of - Lynchburg, on Sept. 23. The ceremony will take place on the site of the future retirement facility at VES and Williams Roads at 4 p.m.

Mrs. Waller G. Wills, III, chairman of the cornerstone laying committee, will welcome those attending the ceremony, and Mrs. Thomas H. Magness, moderator of the Presbyterian Synod of the Virginias, will give the opening prayer. The closing prayer will be given by the Rt. Rev. A. Heath Light, Bishop of the Diocese of Southwestern Virginia.

The speaker will be introduced by Mrs. G. Gilmer Craddock, Jr., ceremony chairman.

A prominent educator, Bunting was named president of Hampden-Sydney in 1977.

Bunting was an honor graduate of Virginia Military Institute and was awarded a Rhodes scholarship to Christ College, Oxford, where he received both the B.A. and M. A. degrees. From 1970 to 1973, he was a doctoral candidate at Columbia University.

After serving as an officer with the U.S. Army in Vietnam, he was an assistant professor of history at the U.S. Military Academy, West Point, and from 1972 to 1973, he was professor and acting head of the Department of Strategy at the U.S. .Naval War College, Newport, R. I. Prior to coming to Hampden-Sydney, he was for four years president of Briarcliff College.

Bunting, who has received numerous awards for his scholastic and military achievements, is listed in "Who's Who in the East," "Outstanding Young Men of America" and was named on the the "Two Hundred Leaders for the Future" by Time magazine in 1974.

A partial listing of his published works includes "Small Units in the Control of Civil Disorder" and "The Advent of Frederick Giles." His book "The Lionheads" was selected as a Book-of-the-Month Club alternate and was cited as "One of the Ten Best Novels of 1972" by Time magazine. He has also had articles printed in Harper's, the Atlantic Monthly, the Commonwealth and the York Times.

Bunting is married to the former Diana Cunningham and they have two children, Elizabeth and Josiah IV.

Following the keynote address, documents and items pertaining to the construction of Westminster-Canterbury House will be presented to John M. Payne, president of the board, for inclusion in the cornerstone.

Those making the presentations will be: Preston R. Willson, board treasurer; the Ven. Richard D. Tyree, Archdeacon of the Episcopal Diocese of Southwestern Virginia; the Rev. H. Davis Yeuell, executive director of the Presbyterian Synod of the Virginias; Dr. Henry Mahler, former General Presbyter, Blue Ridge Presbytery; Mrs. Edwin B. Vaden, chairman of the former Westminster-Canterbury development committee; Robert B. Mountcastle, chairman of the Westminster-Canterbury building committee; Hunsdon Cary, III, administrator of Westminster-Canterbury House and Mrs. S. Thomas Martin, member of the cornerstone laying committee.

Cambell County Republicans Plan Fall Festival '79

On Saturday, September 29, 1979, from 1:00 P.M. until 8:00 P.M., at historic Camp Ruthers which is situated on 42 acres of Woodland, area families will have an opportunity to sample the homemade Brunswick Stew, and participate in many planned activities which will be announced at a later date. On hand will be local candidates for the Twelfth District (Campbell County and the annexed portion of Lynchburg) House of Delegates seat, Campbell County Sheriff and Board of Supervisors.

Festival '79 is the first public event sponsored by the Campbell County Republicans and it is hoped that it will not only be a great success but will be an annual event for the benefit of local candidates.
